Continuing the Journey: Learning & Empowerment in Discipleship

As we continue our journey of discipleship, we delve deeper into our current sermon series, "Discipled: Discipleship Principles from the Followers of Jesus." Last week, we explored the foundational principles of cultivating intimacy with Jesus and practicing obedience to Him. This morning, we will delve into the second message of this series, titled "Learning & Empowerment."

In this sermon, we will focus on how the first followers of Jesus learned from His example and were empowered by the Holy Spirit for ministry. Drawing from Scriptures such as John 15:4-5 and Acts 1:4-8, we will examine the importance of abiding in Christ, bearing fruit, and embracing the empowerment of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

The first disciples learned not only through direct teaching but also by observing Jesus' actions and character. They sought to imitate His love, compassion, and servant-heartedness. This principle encourages us to model our lives after Christ's example, becoming more like Him in our attitudes and actions.

Just as the early disciples walked closely with Jesus and received the promise of the Holy Spirit, we too are called to learn from Christ's teachings and rely on the power of the Holy Spirit for our Christian walk. This message will challenge us to deepen our relationship with Jesus, seek to emulate His example, and step out in faith as empowered disciples.

Remain in me, as I also remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me. "I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. John 15:4-5
