Community & Courage: Nurturing Discipleship

As we journey through the month of April, our exploration of discipleship continues with our sermon series, "Discipled: Discipleship Principles from the Followers of Jesus." We began this series by delving into the importance of cultivating intimacy with Jesus and practicing obedience to Him. Last week, we saw the significance of learning from Jesus' teaching and example and being empowered by His Holy Spirit for the work of ministry. This morning, we will embark on the third message in this series, titled "Community & Risk-taking."

In this sermon, we will delve into the disciples' life in community as depicted in Acts 2:42-47, where we learn the importance of community in the lives of the first disciples. Then, we will examine the well-known story in Matthew 14:22-33, where we see the disciples' willingness to take risks in following Jesus. Through these passages, we will discover the significance of Christian community in nurturing and supporting discipleship, as well as the role of faith in overcoming fear and doubt to take bold steps for Jesus as disciples today.

As we explore these vital aspects of discipleship, my prayer is that we would grow together in our understanding and practice of discipleship. If you have missed any of the previous messages, you can watch them on demand at the HLCC YouTube page at www.youtube.com/hamlanechurchofchrist

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!!

Then he called the crowd to him along with his disciples and said: "Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, but whoever loses their life for me and for the gospel will save it. Mark 8:34-35

1. The 1st Disciples found _____ in _____.
 All the believers were together and had everything in common... Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.
 Acts 2:44,46-47

2. The 1st Disciples took bold steps to _____ for _____.
 Shortly before dawn Jesus went out to them, walking on the lake. ²⁶ When the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified. "It's a ghost," they said, and cried out in fear. But Jesus immediately said to them: "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid." "Lord, if it's you," Peter replied, "tell me to come to you on the water." "Come," he said. Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water and came toward Jesus. Matthew 14:25-29

Disciples today are still called to...

1. Embrace Christian _____.
 And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching. Hebrews 10:24-25

2. Step out in _____ and take _____ for Jesus.
 "I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world." John 16:33

And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him. Hebrews 11:6

If you are visiting with us today, we are honored to have you as our guest. Should you have any questions about who we are or what we do, please feel free to ask one of us and pick up a "Welcome" brochure on our Greeters' booth in the foyer.
