CHAD'S CORNER

Unshakeable Faith

This morning we begin a new sermon series in the Book of Titus, titled Unshakeable Faith: Living the Truth We Believe. Titus is a short letter, but it speaks powerfully to the kind of moment we're living in. Written to young churches in a challenging culture, it reminds us that faith is not meant to be flimsy, reactive, or shaped by the world around us. Instead, faith rooted in God's truth produces lives marked by godliness, purpose, and good works.

Throughout this series, we'll see a simple but important pattern: what we believe shapes how we live. Sound doctrine is never just information to be known. Rather, it is truth meant to be lived out in everyday faithfulness. When the gospel shapes our homes, our relationships, our work, and our church life, our faith becomes visible and resilient.

As we step into this series together, my prayer is that we would be a people who are grounded in Christ, ordered by God's wisdom, and eager to live out the grace we've received. We live in a world that is constantly shaking, but Scripture reminds us that we are receiving "a kingdom that cannot be shaken" (Hebrews 12:28).

I look forward to walking through Titus together and discovering how God forms an unshakeable faith in ordinary people who trust Him and live out His truth.
